

APeJ PUBLICATIONS RIGHTS FORM

Instructions: Complete and sign Sections 1 and 2 of this form.

Accepted manuscripts cannot be published unless this form is completed, signed, and returned to the Editor. For information on APeJ copyright policies, please see the reverse side of this form. This form and the terms contained herein may not be amended without the express written consent of the APeJ.

1. Copyright Transfer

A. AUTHORIZED CORRESPONDING AUTHOR: The undersigned, desiring to publish the above manuscript in a print publication and/or electronic information service of the Academic Publications eJournal (APeJ), hereby assigns to APeJ on behalf of all authors, all right, title, and interest in the above manuscript and any supplemental materials. (If the majority of authors or primary authors are U.S. government employees, a signature is required in Section C and not in this section.) All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights, shall remain with the author(s). In return for copyright, APeJ hereby grants to the authors listed in Section 2 of this form, and the employers for whom the work was performed (if applicable), royalty-free, nonexclusive, limited licenses to:

1. Reproduce, or have reproduced, the above manuscript for the author(s)' personal use or for the author(s)' intracompany use provided that (a) the source and APeJ copyright notice are indicated and (b) the copies are not used in a way that implies APeJ endorsement of a product or service of an employer. This license does not include the right for the author(s) to transfer, offer for sale, or sell the manuscript to any third party.

3. In the case of work performed under U.S. Government contract, APeJ grants the U.S. Government royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the above manuscript and to authorize others to do so for U.S. Government purposes.

Through signature below, the undersigned author (a) signifies acceptance of the terms and conditions listed above; (b) affirms that written permission has been obtained for all previously published and/or copyrighted material contained in this manuscript and any supplemental materials for online publication, as well as any other requisite permissions or releases; (c) affirms that the manuscript is an original work of authorship that has not been previously published, does not infringe any third party's intellectual property rights, and does not contain any material that is obscene, defamatory, or libelous; (d) has read and agrees to APeJ's internet posting policy; and (e) affirms that he/she is authorized to sign this form on behalf of all authors.

B. AUTHORS OF WORK FOR HIRE: In addition to the author signature in Section A above, authors whose work was performed within the scope of their employment must provide the signature of an authorized representative of the employer, and the employer's signature below affirms its acceptance and grant of the assignment and rights set forth herein to APeJ.

C. U.S. GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES: In lieu of the author signature in Section A above, author(s) whose work was performed within the scope of their employment with the U.S. Government must provide the signature of an authorized representative, certifying that the work is in the public domain. (If the work was performed under Government contract but the author is not a Government employee, no signature is required in this section—please see Section A.3 above.)

I certify that the majority of the authors or the primary authors of the manuscript cited above are employees of the U.S. Government and performed this work as part of their employment and that the paper is therefore not subject to the U.S. copyright protection.

APeJ Permission Policy

Copyrighted Material

It is the policy of APeJ to own the copyrights to its publications, and to the contributions contained therein, in order to protect the interests of the Association, its authors, and their employers, and at the same time to facilitate the appropriate reuse of this material by others.

In exercising its rights under U.S. copyright law, APeJ requires authors to obtain APeJ's permission and/or pay APeJ a fee to republish or reuse the author(s)' manuscript under certain circumstances.

Circumstances in which no permission or fees will be required:

- Authors seeking to reproduce their own manuscript for personal use
- Photocopying of isolated articles for noncommercial classroom and/or library reserve use

Circumstances in which permission is required, but no fee will be charged:

Authors seeking to use their own material commercially (but for use in edited book compilations, fees are waived for the author only if he or she is serving as the editor of that book compilation)

Circumstances in which permission and a fee will be charged:

Photocopying of materials for classroom use in which students are charged for the copies

Photocopying of two or more articles, regardless of classroom use

Photocopying of materials for course packs and other large-scale copying, regardless of whether a fee is charged to the students

Commercial organizations seeking to reprint APeJ materials

Fees are normally charged to all commercial organizations that secure permission to reprint APeJ-copyrighted material. This fee, after an appropriate deduction to cover APeJ's costs associated with administering the permission function, is turned over to the Academic Publications eJournal.
